

shall be considered State employees for the purposes of this Act. The regular employees of the Baltimore City Department of Welfare whose salaries are fixed by the State Department of Welfare and 80% of whose salaries are paid by the State shall be considered State employees for the purposes of this Act.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That employees of the Unemployment Compensation Board who receive no compensation from State Funds other than that derived from Federal sources shall be paid the same additional compensation of One Hundred and Eighty Dollars ($180.00) provided in this Act as if they were State employees and their compensation were paid from State funds, provided that the Federal Government consents to the payment of such additional compensation from Federal funds or from State funds derived from Federal sources.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That all employees of the State Roads Commission entitled to the additional compensation provided by this Act shall be paid such increases from State Roads funds and all other employees entitled to said additional compensation who are paid from Special Funds shall also be paid such increases from the Special Funds from which their customary compensation is paid.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the additional compensation provided for by this Act shall not be paid to any employees who receive maintenance as part of their compensation, provided, however, that this section shall not apply to any police employees of the Department of Maryland State Police nor to those employees of the State Roads Commission employed in operating the ferries nor to teachers and employees of the State Teachers' Colleges. All teachers and employees of The Maryland School For the Deaf shall be entitled to the additional compensation provided by this Act whether or not they receive maintenance as part of their compensation.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That any employee who leaves or has left the State service to enter the Armed forces of the United States and has been discharged and re-employed by the State or shall hereafter be discharged and be re-employed by the State, shall be entitled to the full payments provided by this Act provided he is employed by the State at the time any of such payments are payable under this Act.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the additional compensation provided for the aforesaid employees under this Act shall not be liable for any contribution to any pension or retirement system.