

WHEREAS, one such person was Augustine Herman, who came to this country from Bohemia in the year 1633, about the time when Maryland was settled; and

WHEREAS, the said Augustine Herman engaged in various business enterprises in the early days of New York City and occupied some political offices of trust there; and

WHEREAS, about 1659, he came to Maryland on a mission from Governor Stuyvesant of New York to Governor Calvert of Maryland; and

WHEREAS, soon thereafter he made a map of the State at the request of Governor Calvert and, in recognition of this valuable service, he was granted large tracts of land in the Bohemia River section of Cecil County and was also made a naturalized citizen of the State; and

WHEREAS, the map of Maryland which he had prepared played an important part in settling the boundary disputes with the State of Pennsylvania; and

WHEREAS, in view of the many services rendered, not only to the people of Maryland but to the nation, it would seem to be fitting that a permanent memorial be established commemorating these services; and

WHEREAS, U. S. Route No. 213, from Elkton, in Cecil County, to the Chester River, is without any local name or designation; therefore be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the State Roads Commission be and it is hereby requested to name and designate U. S. Route No. 213, from Elkton to the Chester River as the "Augustine Herman Highway," under its powers as contained in Section 8 of Article 89B of the Annotated Code of Maryland.

Approved April 23, 1945.
