

of chiropody, acceptable to the Board. Thereupon the said applicant shall be subjected to an examination.

433. Any one who shall practice or attempt to practice chiropody in this State without having complied with the provisions of this sub-title shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than Fifty Dollars nor more than Two Hundred Dollars and in default of payment of such fine shall be imprisoned for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days. Such fines, when collected, are to be paid into the treasury of the State of Maryland. Nothing in this sub-title, however, shall be construed to interfere with doctors of medicine in the discharge of their professional duties or prevent or restrict the commercial sale or fitting of shoes or foot appliances.

434. The Board of Chiropody Examiners may revoke or suspend for such period as the Board may determine by majority vote of its members any certificate which it has issued and cause the name of the holder to be stricken from the book of registration by certificate to the Clerk of the Court in which the name of the person whose license is revoked or suspended is registered for any of the following causes:

- (a) If any person, who, in any affidavit or examination required of an applicant for examination, certificate or registration under the laws regulating the practice of chiropody, shall make a false statement in a material regard;
- (b) Any person who shall directly or indirectly allow or permit others than him or herself to practice under a certificate or license issued to him or her;
- (c) Any person convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude;
- (d) Any person habitually indulging in the use of ardent spirits, narcotics, stimulants or any other substance which impairs intellect and judgment to such an extent as, in the opinion of the Board of Chiropody Examiners, to incapacitate such person from the performance of his professional duties; or who is by reason of insanity or contagious disease an improper person to practice chiropody;
- (e) Any person failing to pay his annual license fee;
- (f) For dishonorable or unprofessional conduct;
- (g) Any person who shall practice under any name except his own true name as set forth on the license issued him or her; uses any sign in violation of Paragraph C Section 434A of this Act; or who shall use large display or glaring light signs;
