accrued and to accrue to day of sale, which said expenses shall include five dollars ($5.00) as attorney's fees in each case where the description of the property is given as hereinbefore set forth, and two dollars ($2.00) as auctioneer's fee for each property sold, with a notice appended that if said taxes, interest, costs, expenses and fees are not paid on or before the fourth Monday in December next ensuing the Treasurer will proceed at 12 o'clock on that day at the Court House door in said county to offer said property for sale to the highest bidder for cash, which list and notice shall be published at least the four weeks prior to the fourth Monday in December; and upon the fourth Monday in December in each year at 12 o'clock the Treasurer shall proceed to sell under the terms of said notice all property upon which taxes, interest, costs expenses and fees are in arrears, and shall continue such sale from day to day on each secular day, legal holidays excepted, from 12 o'clock A. M. to 3 o'clock P. M., until all of said property shall have been offered and disposed of.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1945.

Approved March 29, 1945.

CHAPTER 406.

(Senate Bill 362)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 467 of Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (Higinbotham's Code, 1942 Edition), title "Harford County," sub-title "Taxes and County Treasurer," providing for the County Commissioners certifying to the County Treasurer the names of taxpayers, assessments, tax rates and providing for the Treasurer's recording of said items.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 467 of Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (Higinbotham's Code, 1942 Edition), title "Harford County," sub-title "Taxes and County Treasurer," be repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

467. The County Commissioners shall within sixty days after making the annual levy certify to the treasurer the
