

(h) The County Commissioners shall keep in a separate book all rules, regulations and restrictions adopted by them from time to time under the authority of this Act, and any amendments or supplements thereto, and shall cause copies to be printed and made available for general distribution. Any such printed copy, together with any amendments and supplements, when certified as accurate by the Chief Clerk of the County Commissioners, shall be deemed prima facie evidence thereof in any judicial proceedings in the State.

The County Commissioners shall have the power to employ or authorize the employment of such officials, engineers, stenographers, secretaries or other assistants necessary for the proper administration of regulations and restrictions adopted under the authority of this Act; to pay, or provide for the payment of salaries and expenses incurred in connection therewith; to impose reasonable charges and fees for service rendered by the administrative officials, and to levy taxes for the payment of salaries and expenses herein authorized.

(i) Any violation of regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to this Act shall be a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or by imprisonment not to exceed thirty days, or both fine and imprisonment. Any person who shall violate such regulations and restrictions shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for every day that such violation shall continue.

(j) The County Commissioners, the Zoning Commissioner and the Board of Zoning Appeals, or any of them, or any person whose property is affected by any violation, including abutting and adjacent property owners, whether specially damaged or not, may maintain an action in the Circuit Court for Baltimore County for an injunction enjoining the erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair or use of buildings, structures and land in violation of regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to this Act.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That in the event that any part of this Act should be found to be invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining parts of this Act shall continue in full force and effect.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed upon by ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of
