

shall the appointment of any person by a county board of education as supervising teacher or helping teacher be valid without the written approval of the State Superintendent of Schools. In each county employing more than ten (10) and fewer than thirty (30) colored elementary teachers there shall be appointed at least one part-time supervising or helping teacher; in each county employing thirty (30) and fewer than eighty (80) colored elementary teachers there shall be employed one full-time colored supervising or helping teacher; in each county employing eighty (80) colored elementary teachers there shall be employed two colored supervising or helping teachers; provided that no person shall be eligible for appointment as supervising teacher or helping teacher who does not hold from the State Superintendent of Schools a certificate in supervision as provided for in Chapter 8, Section 88 of this Article; nor shall the appointment of any person by a county board of education as supervising teacher or helping teacher be valid without the written approval of the State Superintendent of Schools. And provided, further, that no full-time supervising teacher, appointed under the provisions of this section or continued in office under the provisions of this section, shall be paid an annual salary of less than two thousand four hundred dollars ($2,400), and if he or she has acted as supervising teacher in the State of Maryland for a period of four years, he or she shall be paid an annual salary of not less than two thousand seven hundred dollars ($2,700); and if he or she has acted as supervising teacher in the State of Maryland for a period of seven years, he or she shall be paid an annual salary of not less than three thousand dollars ($3,000). With the approval of the State Superintendent of Schools, county boards of education may employ helping teachers under the conditions for supervising teachers prescribed in this section at an annual salary of six hundred dollars ($600) less than that paid to supervising teachers. The State of Maryland shall pay, as hereinafter provided, out of the General State School Fund to the treasurer of the county board of education two-thirds of the annual salaries of the supervising teachers or helping teachers required by this section. County boards of education may at their discretion, pay to a county supervising or helping teacher an annual salary in excess of the schedule provided in this section, but the State shall not share in the part-payment of this excess. County boards of education are free to employ as many additional supervising teachers or helping teachers as in their judgment are necessary, but the State shall not share in the payment of their salaries. The State of Maryland shall pay, as hereinafter provided, to the Board of School Commissioners of Baltimore City two-thirds of the annual salaries of not more than ten supervising teachers.
