

the number of certificates issued and the receipts and expenses under this sub-title during each fiscal year.

70. (Revocation and Suspension of Certificates.) The Commission of State Forests and Parks, by majority vote thereof, may permanently revoke or temporarily suspend any certificate of any Certified Tree Expert who has been guilty of any fraud or deceit in obtaining such certificate, or who has been guilty of negligence or wrongful conduct in the practice of professional tree culture or care. The Commission may promulgate, and may amend, from time to time, rules of professional ethics and may temporarily suspend for a period not to exceed two years the certificate of any Certified Tree Expert who violates such rules of professional ethics, this power of suspension being in addition to and not in limitation of the power to revoke or suspend heretofore provided in this section. No certificate issued under this sub-title shall be revoked or the effect thereof suspended until the holder shall have had a hearing before the Commission. Notice of the cause for suspension or revocation under this section and the date of hearing thereon by the Commission shall be mailed to the holder of such certificate at his or her last known address at least twenty days before said hearing. The non-appearance of the holder of such certificate after notice as herein provided shall not prevent such hearing. By majority vote the Commission may re-issue any tree expert's certificate previously revoked. Any person not a citizen of the United States when he or she receives a certificate issued under this sub-title shall have such certificate revoked unless within six years from the receipt thereof he or she has become a citizen of the United States.

71. (False Representations; Penalties.) If any person shall represent himself or herself to the public as having received a certificate as provided for in this sub-title, or shall assume to practice as a Certified Tree Expert without having received such certificate, or if any person having received such certificate shall thereafter lose the same by revocation or have the effect of the same suspended as provided for in this sub-title and shall continue to practice as a Certified Tree Expert, or if any person shall use such title, or the abbreviation "C. T. E." or any other words, letters, or abbreviations tending to indicate that such person is a Certified Tree Expert without having received such certificate or when such certificate has been revoked or suspended, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished for each offense by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00) or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the Court. Nothing in this sub-title shall be construed to prevent the
