CHAPTER 658.

(House Bill 399)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 96 of Article 52 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Justices of the Peace", sub-title "Trial Magistrate System", sub-heading "Costs", relating to the disposition of fines and costs, to provide that in Anne Arundel County all fines from violation of ordinances of incorporated municipalities shall be paid to the municipalities.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 96 of Article 52 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Justices of the Peace", sub-title "Trial Magistrate System", sub-heading "Costs", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

96. (Costs). All justices of the peace shall charge the fees and costs authorized by law to be imposed in civil and criminal cases, but all such fees and costs, and all fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed and collected by trial magistrates, shall be paid to the County Commissioners of their respective counties, except fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs for violations of the Motor Vehicle Laws, which shall be promptly remitted to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, as now provided by law. All such fines, forfeitures, and penalties and costs so remitted to the County Commissioners shall be retained and used for county purposes, unless a different disposition is expressly directed by statute; provided, however, that in Frederick County, the County Commissioners shall within a reason-
