

weekly for the space of three years to the wife, and to release defendant from custody on probation for the space of three years upon his entering into a recognizance in such sum as the Court shall direct, with or without sureties. The condition of the recognizance shall be such that if the defendant shall make his personal appearance at the Court whenever ordered so to do within the three years, and shall further comply with the terms of the order, or of any subsequent modification thereof, then the recognizance shall be void, otherwise of full force and effect. If the Court be satisfied by information and due proof under oath, at any time during the three years, that the defendant has violated the terms of such order, it may forthwith proceed to the trial of the defendant under the original indictment, or sentence him under the original conviction, as the case may be. In the case of forfeiture of a recognizance and enforcement thereof by execution, the sum recovered may, in the discretion of the Court, be paid in whole or in part to the wife. Provided, that in Allegany County the Justice of the Peace, known as the Magistrate for Juvenile Cases, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the Circuit Court of said County to try persons violating the provisions of this sub-title and that imprisonment of offenders shall not exceed two years.
