

Maryland (1943 Supplement), title "Testamentary Law", sub-title "Orphans' Court", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

241. The Orphans' Court, unless a different time is prescribed by the local law, shall be held in each county and the City of Baltimore, at the usual place of holding the court of said county or city, on the second Tuesday in every month of February, April, June, August, October and December, and oftener if need be, according to its own adjournment; and any one of the judges of the said court, in the absence of the others shall have power to hold the said court at a stated time of adjournment only for the purpose of adjourning; any two of them shall have full power to do any act which the said court is or shall be authorized by law to perform, and any two of them shall have power to hold the court on any day not named in an adjournment, on the application of any person having pressing business in the said court; provided, notice thereof be given to all, and in such case the register shall record that such notice hath been given.

Any one of the judges, in the absence of the others on account of prolonged illness, or in case of vacancy, shall have full power to do any act which the said court is authorized by law to do, provided there be attached to the proceedings or papers in each case a certificate signed by the Register of Wills, certifying to the vacancy or to the illness or inability of the Judge or Judges not attending said court on said day.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1945.

Approved February 16, 1945.

CHAPTER 99.
