

General Laws of Maryland, title "Appeals and Errors," sub-title "Appeals from Justices of the Peace," (as said Section 93 was repealed and re-enacted by Chapter 20 of the Acts of 1943) be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

93. Any party aggrieved thereby may appeal from any judgment of a Justice of the Peace to the Circuit Court for the county, or the Baltimore City Court, as the case may be, at any time within thirty days from the rendition of such judgment; and the court to which such appeal is taken shall hear the case de novo and determine the same according to law, and the equity and right of the matter; and this section shall be construed to include all actions of debt for the collection of fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by any law of the State or by any ordinance of any incorporated city or town of the State, and which are made recoverable before a Justice of the Peace, in which a right of appeal may not be given by the law imposing the same.

97. If the summons shall be returned "summoned," the case shall stand for trial de novo, without regard to terms of court, at such date as the parties may agree upon, and where the parties cannot agree, the court shall fix the date for trial thereof; provided always that the court shall have full control over the assignment of such cases for trial.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on June 1st, 1945.

Approved April 27, 1945.

CHAPTER 765.

(Senate Bill 377)

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 16 of the Annotated Code of the Public General Laws of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Chancery," sub-title "Trustee," said new section to be known as Section 279A and to follow immediately after Section 279 of said Article; such new section to authorize fiduciaries to register stocks, bonds or other corporate securities held by them in a fiduciary capacity in the name of a nominee.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section, to be known as Section 279A and to
