

Board, and for not less than the one nor more than the nine weeks which immediately follow such week as determined by the Board in each case according to the seriousness of the misconduct.

(c) If the Board finds that he has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work when so directed by the Board or to accept suitable work when offered him, or to return to his customary self employment (if any) when so directed by the Board. Such disqualification shall continue for the week in which such failure occurred and for not less than the one nor more than the nine weeks which immediately follow such week as determined by the Board according to the circumstances in each case.

(1) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the Board shall consider the degree of risk involved to his health, safety, and morale, his physical fitness and prior training, his experience and prior earnings, his length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in his customary occupation, and the distance of the available work from his residence.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, no work shall be deemed suitable and benefits shall not be denied under this Act to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions: (a) if the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute; (b) if the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality; (c) if as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a company union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization.

CLAIMS FOR BENEFITS

6. (f) Review by Board.

The Board may, on its own motion, within the time specified in sub-section (e) of this Section, initiate a review of the decision of a referee or determination of a special examiner or may allow an appeal from such decision on application filed within such time by any party entitled to notice of such decision. An appeal filed by any such party shall be allowed as of right if the examiner's determination was not affirmed by the referee. Upon review on its own motion or upon appeal, the Board may on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in such case, or upon the basis of such evidence as it may direct be taken, affirm, modify or reverse the findings and conclusions of the
