

by use of levies and taxes, either regular or special, and without regard to present tax limitations. Any such governmental unit is also hereby authorized to borrow money, in anticipation of any such levy or tax, for such purpose.

11. In cases of any Second World War Veteran who was a State employee, either classified or unclassified, the State Employment Commissioner shall have the authority, after proper investigation, including medical and mental examinations deemed necessary, to determine the qualifications of such a Veteran to perform the duties of the position to which he asks reinstatement or re-employment. In the case of all other governmental units mentioned in Section 8 of this sub-title, the Civil Service Commission, or individual or body having similar powers and duties in any governmental unit having such a Civil Service Commission or other individual or body with similar powers and duties shall determine the qualifications of Second World War Veterans seeking reinstatement or re-employment by such governmental unit, or if there be no such Civil Service Commission, or individual or body having similar powers or duties in any governmental unit, the appointing authority involved or such agent or agency as the appointing authority may designate by resolution, or other appropriate action, shall determine such qualifications.

12. The reclassification, re-naming or upgrading of any position left by a Second World War Veteran to enter the armed services shall not affect the right of such Veteran to reinstatement, if he is eligible for reinstatement under the provisions of this Act, provided he is capable of satisfactorily performing the duties of said reclassified, renamed or upgraded position, and, in case of dispute, his qualifications shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 11 of this Act, which shall be liberally construed in favor of such Veteran. If such Veteran is not capable of satisfactorily performing the duties of said reclassified, renamed or upgraded position, he shall be entitled to a "comparable" or "most comparable" position in accordance with the provisions of this sub-title.

13. A person who is not a Second World War Veteran and who is displaced by the reinstatement of such a Veteran with equal or greater seniority, under the provisions of this sub-title, shall be offered another comparable position by the State or governmental unit involved, wherever possible. Where no such position is available, such displaced civilian shall be entered on an appropriate eligible list, in accordance with seniority, and shall be entitled to
