

by registered mail at least ten days prior to said sale to the owner of said aircraft or part thereof, if his address be known, or if it can be ascertained by the exercise of reasonable diligence, or by mailing said notice by registered mail to the person who gave the order for doing or furnishing any or all of the things mentioned in Section 24 (a) to or for said aircraft, or part thereof, or who landed the aircraft on or otherwise used the airport as mentioned in Section 24 (a). If the address of neither of said persons is known, and by the exercise of reasonable diligence cannot be ascertained, then such notice shall be mailed to "General Delivery" at the Postoffice of the city or county where the business of said lienor is located or where the airport of the lienor is located. Any excess in the amount of the selling price of said aircraft or part thereof at said sale over and above the expenses thereof, including a reasonable attorney's fee and the amount of said lien, shall be remitted to the owner of said aircraft or part thereof.

(d) The remedies for enforcing the aforesaid lien herein provided shall not preclude any other remedies allowed by law for the enforcement of a lien against personal property nor bar the right to recover so much of the lienor's claim as shall not be paid by the proceeds of the sale of the aircraft, or part thereof.

(e) Should the owner of the aircraft or part thereof replevy the same and the defendant in such action move the Court for a writ of retorno habendo and if it shall appear to the Court that the defendant's claim to the right of possession of such aircraft or part thereof is based on any lien or right to hold the property replevied as security for any sum of money claimed to be due as distinguished from a claim of ownership of the property replevied, the Court shall refuse to order a return of the property replevied to the defendant until a judgment is given in the action, and in the trial of such replevin action it shall be the duty of the Court, if the case is being tried without a jury, or the duty of the jury if the case is being tried before a jury, to determine the amount of such lien or claim, if any, and the amount of any expenses which were properly incurred or which accrued prior to the date of trial, including storage and advertising, and the judgment in such action, if for the defendant, shall be either for the return of the property replevied, or for the amount of such lien or claim, and any accrued expenses which were properly incurred by the defendant, including storage and advertising; and the Court may also allow a reasonable counsel fee to the defendant's counsel. The burden of proof in such action shall be upon the defendant to establish his claim or lien to the
