

Article or other provisions of the criminal law of this or some other jurisdiction.

LOYALTY

10. No subversive person, as defined in this Article, shall be eligible for employment in, or appointment to any office, or any position of trust or profit in the government of, or in the administration of the business of this State, or of any county, municipality, or other political sub-division of this State.

11. Every person and every board, commission, council, department, court or other agency of the State of Maryland or any political sub-division thereof, who or which appoints or employs or supervises in any manner the appointment or employment of public officials or employees shall establish by rules, regulations or otherwise, procedures designed to ascertain before any person, including teachers and other employees of any public educational institution in this State, is appointed or employed, that he or she as the case may be, is not a subversive person, and that there are no reasonable grounds to believe such persons are subversive persons. In the event such reasonable grounds exist, he or she as the case may be shall not be appointed or employed. In securing any facts necessary to ascertain the information herein required, the applicant shall be required to sign a written statement containing answers to such inquiries as may be material, which statement shall contain notice that it is subject to the penalties of perjury.

12. The inquiries prescribed in Section 11, other than the written statement to be executed by an applicant for employment, shall not be required as a prerequisite to the employment of any persons in the classification of laborers in any case in which the employing authority shall in his or its discretion determine, and by rule or regulation specify the reasons why, the nature of the work to be performed is such that employment of persons as to whom there may be reasonable grounds to believe that they are subversive persons as defined in this Article will not be dangerous to the health of the citizens or the security of the Governments of the United States, the State of Maryland, or any political sub-division thereof.

13. Every person, who on June 1, 1949 shall be in the employ of the State of Maryland or of any political sub-