

ployees not covered by the classified service in this section referred to, shall establish rules or procedures similar to those required herein for classified services for a hearing for any person charged with being a subversive person, as defined in this Article, after notice and opportunity to be heard. Every employing authority discharging any person pursuant to any provision of this Article shall promptly report to the Special Assistant Attorney General in charge of subversive activities the fact of and the circumstances surrounding such discharge. A person discharged under the provisions of this section shall have the right within thirty days thereafter to appeal to the Circuit Court of the county or to the Baltimore City Court wherein such person may reside for a determination by such Court (with the aid of a jury, if the appellant so elects) as to whether or not the discharge appealed from was justified under the provisions of this Act. The Court shall speedily hear and determine such appeals, and from the judgment of the Court, there shall be a further appeal to the Court of Appeals of Maryland as in civil cases.

15. No person shall become a candidate for election under the provisions of Article 33 of the Annotated Code of Maryland to any public office whatsoever in this State, unless he or she shall file with the certificate of nomination required by the foregoing Article, an affidavit that he or she is not a subversive person as defined in this Article; provided that, in the case of certificates of nomination for President or Vice President of the United States, the affidavit may be made on behalf of such candidates by those persons who file the certificate of nomination for such candidates. No certificate of nomination shall be received for filing by any Board of Supervisors of Elections or by the Secretary of State of Maryland unless accompanied by the affidavit aforesaid, and there shall not be entered upon any ballot or voting machine at any election the name of any person who has failed or refused to make the affidavit aforesaid.

16. Before any appropriation of public funds of any character shall be made by the State of Maryland to any private institution of learning, there shall be filed with the Governor, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates, on behalf of said institution, a written report setting forth what procedures it has adopted to determine whether it has reasonable grounds to believe that any subversive persons are in its employ, and what steps, if any, have been or are being taken to terminate such employment. In the absence of such a report no appropriation
