

which shall be set forth: (a) the name of the corporation to survive the merger; (b) any amendments to the charter of such surviving corporation to be effected by the merger (and as to such amendments, the charter shall be deemed to be amended accordingly upon the receipt for record by the State Tax Commission of the agreement of merger); (c) the total amount of the authorized capital stock of each of the merging corporations; (d) the terms and conditions of the proposed merger and the mode of carrying the same into effect, specifying the total amount of capital stock of each class of the surviving corporation to be issued for stock of each class of each of the other corporations and the manner of converting the capital stock of each of such other corporations into stock of the surviving corporation; (e) the counties of this State in which the principal offices of the merging corporations are located and the counties of this State in which any of the merging corporations (other than the corporation surviving the merger) owns property the title to which could be affected by the recording of an instrument among the land records, and if any of such merging corporations has its principal office or owns such property in the City of Baltimore, the agreement of merger shall so state; and (f) all such other provisions and details as may be deemed necessary to perfect the merger.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That Sub-section (2) of Section 34 of Article 23 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1947 Supp.), title "Corporations", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

34.

(2) If the new corporation to be formed by the consolidation, or the corporation to survive the merger, is to be a corporation organized under the laws of another State, there shall be an agreement of consolidation or of merger, as the case may be, in which shall be set forth: (a) the name of the new or the surviving corporation, the State under the laws of which it will be organized and the location of its principal office in said State; (b) the name and State of incorporation of each corporation party to said agreement and, as to each corporation organized under the laws of another State, the date of incorporation, whether incorporated under general or by special law (giving chapter number and year of passage if incorporated by special law) and, if it is authorized to do business in this State, the date of its qualification; (c) the terms and con-