

per centum of the average weekly wages, not to exceed, however, a maximum of Twenty Dollars per week, and not less than a minimum of Twelve Dollars per week unless the deceased employee's established weekly wages were less than Twelve Dollars per week at the time of injury, in which event the compensation shall be an amount equal to the average weekly wages, and to continue for no more than five hundred weeks after the date of death and not to amount to more than a maximum of Seventy-five Hundred ($7,500.00) Dollars nor less than a minimum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars.

(c) If there are no wholly dependent persons at the time of the death, but are partly dependent persons, those partly dependent shall receive compensation as follows: The weekly payments to such dependents shall be in amount not exceeding sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the average weekly wages or Twenty ($20.00) Dollars per week, but may, in the discretion of the Commission, be for a less amount per week and to continue for all or such portion of the period of 416 weeks, after the date of death, as the Commission in each case may determine, and not to amount to more than a maximum of Three Thousand Dollars.

(d) In all cases, questions of dependency, in whole, or in part, shall be determined by the Commission in accordance with the facts in each particular case existent at the time of the injury resulting in death of such employee.

(e) The right to any compensation payable to any dependent and unpaid at the date of death of any such dependent shall survive to and be vested in the surviving dependents as the Commission may determine, if there be such surviving dependents, and if there be none such, then the compensation shall cease.

(f) Compensation under this Article to alien dependent widows, children and parents, not residents of the United States, shall be the same in amount as is provided in each case for residents, except that at any time within one year after an accident resulting in death the Commission may, in its discretion, convert any payments thereafter to become due to such beneficiaries into lump sum payment, not in any case to exceed Twenty-four Hundred Dollars, by paying a sum equal to three-fourths of the then value of such payments.

(g) Non-resident alien dependents may be officially represented by the consular officers of the nation of which such alien or aliens may be citizens or subjects, and in
