

28. (Renunciation of Compact.) The Articles of this addition to said Compact of 1785 herein adopted shall remain in full force and effect unless renounced in whole or in part by the Legislature of the State of Maryland or the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Virginia. No such renunciation of any part or all of said Articles shall be effective for three (3) years after the adoption of the legislation by each State purporting to effect such renunciation. Any such prospective renunciation which has been adopted by the Legislature of either State may, before its effective date, be revoked, and thereafter, said Articles shall remain unaffected by the proposed but revoked renunciation. The power of renunciation herein given shall not extend to the renunciation of any part of the original Compact of 1785 between the State of Maryland and the Commonwealth of Virginia.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That these Articles hereby added to the Compact of 1785 shall become effective thirty (30) days after their approval and ratification by the Congress of the United States, subsequent to their adoption by the Legislatures of the Commonwealth of Virginia and the State of Maryland.

Approved April 29, 1949.
