

voters of said town who shall be assessed on the tax books thereof with at least Three Hundred Dollars' worth of property, persons to serve without compensation as Commissioners of Henderson as follows:

(b) On the fourth Monday of April, in the year nineteen hundred and forty-nine, five persons shall be elected, two of whom shall be elected to serve two years, and three of whom shall be elected to serve one year, and until their successors are elected and qualified. Thereafter, on the fourth Monday of April in each even-numbered year three persons shall be elected for two years and until their successors are duly elected and qualified; and on the fourth Monday of April in each odd-numbered year two persons shall be elected for two years and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. No person shall be eligible to be a Commissioner unless he has resided within the town for a period of at least two years prior to election. Henry Schultie, Ira R. Smith, T. A. Montague, Earl R. Thompson, and Carleton Gooden, shall act as Commissioners until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

312G. The Commissioners, or a majority of them, shall be judges of the elections held under the provisions of Section 312F or they may appoint any three voters to act as judges, and the proceedings shall be recorded under their direction; and every Commissioner or person so appointed before he opens an election shall make oath before a justice of the peace or notary public for Caroline County that he will faithfully and impartially permit every person to vote at such election who shall be qualified to vote for Commissioners of said town, and that he will not suffer any person to vote at such election who shall not be legally qualified to vote as provided in Section 3 of this Act, and the three persons (or two as the case may be) having the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.

312H. If in any election held under the provisions of the preceding section, two or more persons shall receive the same number of votes, the judges of said election shall, after having given five days' notice of the time and place, proceed to hold another election to fill the position for which the vote was tied, and the person or persons receiving the highest number of votes at said new election, with those previously chosen, if any, shall constitute the Commissioners of Henderson, and such new elections shall be continued by said judges after 5 days' notice for each new election until the required number of Commissioners have been elected.
