

writing, to all other provisions of this Act and, with respect to joint reinsurance, to Sub-sections 12, 15 and 16 of this Act.

(b) If, after a hearing, the commissioner finds that any activity or practice of any such group, association or other organization is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, he may issue a written order specifying in what respects such activity or practice is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and requiring the discontinuance of such activity or practice.

12. EXAMINATIONS.

The commissioner shall, at least once in five years, make or cause to be made an examination of each rating organization licensed in this State as provided in Sub-section 6 and he may, as often as he may deem it expedient, make or cause to be made an examination of each advisory organization referred to in Sub-section 10 and of each group, association or other organization referred to in Sub-section 11. The reasonable costs of any such examination shall be paid by the rating organization, advisory organization, or group, association or other organization examined upon presentation to it of a detailed account of such costs. The officers, manager, agents and employees of such rating organization, advisory organization, or group, association or other organization may be examined at any time under oath and shall exhibit all books, records, accounts, documents, or agreements governing its method of operation. In lieu of any such examination the commissioner may accept the report of an examination made by the insurance supervisory official of another state, pursuant to the laws of such state.

13. RATE ADMINISTRATION.

(a) (Recording and Reporting of Loss and Expense Experience.) The commissioner shall promulgate reasonable rules and statistical plans, reasonably adapted to each of the rating systems on file with him, which may be modified from time to time and which shall be used thereafter by each insurer in the recording and reporting of its loss and country-wide expense experience, in order that the experience of all insurers may be made available at least annually in such form and detail as may be necessary to aid him in determining whether rating systems comply with the standards set forth in Sub-section 3. Such rules and plans may also provide for the recording and reporting of expense experience items which are specially applicable to this State and are not susceptible of determination by a prorating of country-wide expense experience. In promulgating
