

such rules and plans, the commissioner shall give due consideration to the rating systems on file with him and, in order that such rules and plans may be as uniform as is practicable among the several states, to the rules and to the form of the plans used for such rating systems in other states. No insurer shall be required to record or report its loss experience on a classification basis that is inconsistent with the rating system filed by it. The commissioner may designate one or more rating organizations or other agencies to assist him in gathering such experience and making compilations thereof, and such compilations shall be made available, subject to reasonable rules promulgated by the commissioner, to insurers and rating organizations.

(b) (Interchange of Rating Plan Data.) Reasonable rules and plans may be promulgated by the commissioner for the interchange of data necessary for the application of rating plans.

(c) (Consultation With Other States.) In order to further uniform administration of rate regulatory laws, the commissioner and every insurer and rating organization may exchange information and experience data with insurance supervisory officials, insurers and rating organizations in other states and may consult with them with respect to rate making and the application of rating systems.

(d) (Rules and Regulations.) The commissioner may make reasonable rules and regulations necessary to effect the purposes of this Act.

14. FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION.

No person or organization shall wilfully withhold information from, or knowingly give false or misleading information to, the commissioner, any statistical agency designated by the commissioner, any rating organization, or any insurer, which will affect the rates or premiums chargeable under this Act. A violation of this sub-section shall subject the one guilty of such violation to the penalties provided in Sub-section 15 of this Act.

15. PENALTIES.

The commissioner may, if he finds that any person or organization has violated any provisions of this Act, impose a penalty of not more than fifty dollars ($50) for each such violation, but if he finds such violation to be wilful he may impose a penalty of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each such violation. Such penalties may be in addition to any other penalty provided by law.
