

which said notice may be served by said Council either personally by any of the said Council or by posting of a copy of said resolution at the last regular meeting place of said Council at least five days before the day named in said resolution for him to turn over the same. Any person, so removed from such office of Treasurer of Morningside, who shall fail or neglect so to turn over to said Council, or to the Secretary of Council, all funds, money, property, records, books, papers and other things or thing of said town in his possession, shall be liable, and the surety or sureties on his bond shall be liable, for any loss or damage that said town may suffer thereby, and said town may institute appropriate proceedings either at law or in equity for this purpose in the Circuit Court of Prince George's County, Maryland, and, in addition to any such proceedings as aforesaid, said town may institute, in the Circuit Court of Prince George's County, a mandamus proceeding against such removed Treasurer of Morningside, and thereby compel such removed Treasurer of Morningside to turn over to said Council, or to said Secretary of Council, all funds, money, records, books, papers, and other things or thing of said town. Provided, however, that nothing contained in this paragraph of this Act shall be construed to limit said town to the proceedings herein mentioned and provided, further, that nothing contained in this paragraph of this Act shall be construed as relieving the Treasurer of Morningside, or former Treasurer of Morningside, from criminal responsibility under any of the criminal laws of the State of Maryland.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, (A) That the Town of Morningside and the Morningside Council shall have the power to open, widen, grade and regrade, repair, maintain and light the streets, roads, lanes, alleys and sidewalks in the said town, and to regulate the parking thereon; to provide clerical and other public services, including fire protection, removal of ashes, garbage and other refuse, and the disposal thereof; to provide and maintain a meeting place of said Council and a place for the keeping of the records, books, property and other things of the said town, to purchase, acquire by gift or grant, and hold or dispose of real and personal property for the benefit of said town including the power to lease or rent the same, to incur expenses and debts on behalf of said town, as hereinafter provided; to provide for any pay the expenses of governing the said town including the expense of having a meeting place for the said Town Council and a place for the keeping of the records, books, property and other things of the said town; the expense of registering voters, conducting elections; providing records, books and other things necessary for the proper government of the said