SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, (A) That the Town of Morningside and the Morningside Council shall have power to levy, following the adoption of this Charter, for the tax year commencing the first day of July, taxes at the rate of not exceeding Fifty Cents (\$.50) on each One Hundred Dollars (\$100.00) of the assessable property within said town, based on the State and County assessments for all purposes; and that the Treasurer of Prince George's County shall be and he is hereby authorized to give the Morningside Council, or the Treasurer of Morningside, a copy of the tax list for said town annually or as often as is necessary, the boundaries of which are laid down in Section 2 of this Charter; and all taxes so levied shall be a lien on any and all property of the person, firm, partnership, company, association or corporation against whom they may be levied; and the taxes for each year shall be payable on the first day of July next succeeding the levy thereof, and shall be in arrears and subject to legal interest at the rate of one per cent (1%) per month up to six per cent. (6%), then one-half per cent. ($\frac{1}{2}\%$) thereafter from and after the first day of October in the same year.

(B) That the taxes provided for in Paragraph A of this section shall be levied by ordinance enacted by the Morningside Council, and any such ordinance shall be in force and effect from and after the date and enactment of the same. And nothing contained in Section 8 of this Act shall apply to any ordinance so levying such taxes, the intent of this Section 6 being that the Morningside Council shall have power, and it shall be the duty of said Council, to enact such ordinances levying such taxes without submitting any such ordinance to a vote of the residents of said town, and that any such ordinance so levying such taxes shall be in force immediately upon the enactment of such ordinance.

(C) That a copy of any such ordinance so levying such taxes shall be open to public inspection.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, (A) That it shall be the duty of the Town Treasurer of the Town of Morningside to collect and receive all taxes and other moneys due to said town, and to keep a record of each item.

(B) That said Town Treasurer of Morningside shall deposit all town funds coming into his hands, together with all such interest accruing thereon, in such depository or deposi-
