

$100. of assessable property in the County to pay said compensation.

(b) If the County Commissioners adopt a Fire Prevention Code as authorized by Section 2D of Article 25 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1947 Supplement), as said section was enacted by Chapter 38 of the Acts of the Special Session of 1948, and any amendments thereof, the Fire Marshal shall be the official to administer and enforce said Code and the rules and regulations which the said Commissioners may adopt to make the Fire Prevention Code effective.

80B. The Fire Marshal and any inspectors which may be appointed to enforce the Fire Prevention Code and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto shall have the power and authority at all reasonable times to enter upon and into any and all public buildings, stores, warehouses, factories or any other structures or premises, except private single family dwellings within the limits of Worcester County for the purpose of examining and inspecting the same for the purpose of making effective the provisions of the Fire Prevention Code and the rules and regulations adopted under authority of this sub-title or other law.

80C. A printed copy of the rules and regulations adopted by the County Commissioners of Worcester County under the authority conferred by Section 2D of Article 25 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1947 Supplement) and any amendments thereof, and by this sub-title, certified by the Clerk to the County Commissioners that it is a true and correct copy, may be received as prima facie evidence in any judicial proceeding.

80D. The Fire Prevention Code and all rules and regulations adopted by the County Commissioners of Worcester County pursuant thereto shall apply within the corporate limits of any municipality in said county which has not adopted a Fire Prevention Code of its own.

80E. The said County Commissioners, in addition to any remedies and penalties otherwise prescribed by law, shall have the right to enforce the Fire Prevention Code and the rules and regulations adopted under the authority of this Act and to prevent infractions thereof by an application in the name of the Fire Marshal to the Circuit Court for Worcester County in Equity for an injunction and a breach or threatened breach or violation of any provision of the Fire Prevention Code or of said rules and regulations shall constitute sufficient cause in itself for the issuance of such in-
