

to be applicable to such primary elections. Challengers and watchers representing the candidates in any said primary elections shall be allowed to be present at the several voting places during the voting and counting of the ballots, as provided by law with respect to general elections. As each voter's name shall be entered in the poll book kept by the clerks of election, there shall be entered opposite his name the name of the party whose candidate or candidates he voted for. If more names are marked for any office than there are persons to be voted for, such ballots shall not be counted for such candidates.

21. The Council of Hagerstown is authorized and empowered to establish and cause to be maintained a permanent registration of the legal voters in the City wards and precincts of said City, and the general registration of voters heretofore made, together with such additions, changes and alterations, as may have been made in accordance with the law in force at the time of the establishment of said permanent registration, and together with such additions, changes and alterations as may be, or become necessary shall constitute such initial permanent registration; said registration shall be corrected and maintained in the manner provided in the permanent registration law of the State applicable to Washington County, in so far as such law is applicable to the City of Hagerstown, and shall specify the residence of the voter in each street lane or alley, and such registration shall be essential to the right of voting at any primary or general election for the office of Mayor and Councilman, or at any special election, but shall not be conclusive evidence of such right to vote. The City of Hagerstown may enter into a contract with the Supervisors of Election of Washington County, the County Commissioners of Washington County, or any other proper authority, to provide and maintain the permanent registration hereinbefore provided for.

22. The Board of Supervisors of Election in the City of Hagerstown may, whenever in their judgment the interests of the City of Hagerstown so require it, with the approval of the Council, select two persons of different political parties in each precinct to act as officers of registration, who shall sit as officers of registration at the usual polling places in each precinct on the second Tuesday in January, and the first Tuesday in March in the year of any general election. They shall also sit on Wednesday of the week following the registration day last mentioned for the sole purpose of hearing applications for reinstatement by persons whose names shall have been stricken off.
