known as Section 372 and to follow immediately after Section 371 of said Article, providing for the distribution of income accruing from date of death of testator under certain conditions.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to Article 93 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Testamentary Law", sub-title "Wills", said new section to be known as Section 372 to follow immediately after Section 371 of said Article, and to read as follows:

372. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the will of a person dying after the effective date of this Act, all net income from real and personal property, accruing from the date of the death of the testator, and not payable under the will to others as otherwise disposed of, shall be distributed as income to those persons who are entitled under the will to the income from the residuary estate in the proportions to which they are so entitled. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the will, none of such income shall be added to the corpus of the residuary estate, the whole or any part of which is devised or bequeathed in trust for life or for a term of years, but shall be distributed pro rata as income to the beneficiaries of a trust of any part or all of the residuary estate, to any tenants for life or for a term of years and to any persons entitled absolutely and free of trust to any portion of the residuary estate. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect the right to income of any legatee or devisee who would otherwise be entitled to such income from property devised or bequeathed to him.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1949.

Approved May 6, 1949.
