

education and training of students desiring to be licensed to practice veterinary medicine, and to cancel or revoke such approvals where such colleges and institutions no longer are deemed satisfactory; provided that the approval of such college or institution by the American Veterinary Medical Association shall be deemed sufficient to qualify such college or institution.

(c) to adopt and promulgate reasonable rules and regulations to make effective the provisions of this sub-title;

(d) to prescribe the subjects, character, manner, time and place of holding examinations, and the filing of applications for examinations, and to conduct examinations and make written reports of such examinations which shall be preserved in the office of the Board for a period of three years.

(e) to issue a license to practice veterinary medicine to any applicant who passes the examination, who is a citizen of the United States, is of good moral character and has a diploma from an approved college or institution conferring upon him the degree of doctor of veterinary medicine.

(f) to suspend or revoke, after a hearing, the license of any person licensed under the provisions of this sub-title who has been convicted of violating any of the provisions of this sub-title or of any unlawful or fraudulent practices, or fraudulent, misleading or deceptive representations or advertising as respects his professional qualifications, or the quality of the materials, drugs, etc. used by him in his professional work or treatment of animals, or has been found guilty of a crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude.

148. (a) Before the license of any licensee is suspended or revoked by the Board, a written copy of the complaint or charge made shall be furnished the licensee against whom the same is made, and an opportunity afforded to be heard before the Board personally and by counsel. The accused shall have the opportunity to confront the witnesses against him, and all witnesses at such hearing shall testify under oath, and the Chairman or any member of the Board shall have the authority to administer the oath. The Board shall have the power to compel the attendance of witnesses by subpoena. At least ten days written notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given the licensee by registered mail addressed to the post office address as shown on the annual registration, or other record or information in the possession of the Board.