

(b) Any person aggrieved by the action of the Board in suspending or revoking a license, may within thirty days after receiving notice of such suspension or revocation, appeal to the Baltimore City Court of Baltimore City or the Circuit Court of the county wherein the licensee has his office where the matter shall be heard de novo, with a further right of appeal to the Court of Appeals of Maryland.

149. It shall be the duty of the Board: (a) to register annually all persons licensed under this sub-title to practice veterinary medicine who have offices in the State, the annual fee for such registration to be five dollars;

(b) to enforce the provisions of this sub-title and aid in the prosecution of all such violations.

150. A fee of ten ($10.00) dollars shall be paid to the Secretary of the Board at the time of filing application by each applicant for examination under this sub-title. The receipts from examination and annual registration fees shall be paid to the State Comptroller and shall be placed in a special fund to the credit of said Board and shall be used to defray the cost of executing and enforcing the provisions of this sub-title, and any unexpended balance in said fund at the end of each fiscal year shall be carried forward to the credit of said fund for the following fiscal year.

151. (a) It is unlawful for any person to practice veterinary medicine or advertise or hold himself out as a practitioner of or entitled to practice veterinary medicine or to assume or use any title of "Veterinarian" or hospital or other titles, words or letters with his name which in any way represent him as being in the practice of veterinary medicine or authorized so to do unless he has been duly licensed, registered and authorized to engage in such practice under the provisions of this sub-title.

(b) It is unlawful for any person to practice veterinary medicine under a name other than on his license and annual registration, or induce any person so to practice in violation of this sub-title.

(c) It is unlawful for any person, other than a veterinarian licensed and registered under the provisions of this sub-title, to own, maintain, conduct, operate or manage a veterinary office, veterinary dental parlor, veterinary hospital, or dog, cat or animal hospital, unless the same is under the direct supervision of a veterinarian licensed and
