

ment is also authorized to revoke any such license; provided, however, if such license be refused to an applicant or be revoked after having been granted, the applicant or licensee, as the case may be, shall have the right to appeal from the decision of the Department to the Superior Court of the City of Baltimore, or to the Circuit Court for the counties, to show cause why such license shall not issue or be revoked. If the court decides that no sufficient cause exists for not granting the license or for revoking the license, the court may order the Department to issue such license or to cancel its order of revocation.

33. The superintendent of any institution, public, corporate or private, or almshouse, which may be duly authorized to hold in custody any insane person in accordance with law, may appoint one or more of the attendants or other employees of such places as policeman or policemen, whose duty it shall be, under the orders of said superintendent or manager or keeper, to arrest and return to such asylum or other institution for the treatment of the insane any insane person who may escape therefrom, and to protect the property and premises of said institution, provided the person or persons so appointed shall be commissioned by the Governor under the provisions of Article 23, Sections 337 to 343, both inclusive, of the Code.

38. Every person confined in such places as are hereinbefore mentioned shall be furnished at all times with paper, envelopes, stamps, pen and ink or pencil; shall at all times have access by correspondence with the Department of Mental Hygiene and some one other person whom such lunatic may designate every month under seal, which communication shall be forwarded by the officer, superintendent or keeper who may be in charge of such person or place; and any such officer, superintendent or keeper who shall fail to forward such communication shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be subject to a fine or imprisonment, in the judgment of the court before which such case may be tried.

40. The medical superintendent or chief officer of any institution, hospital, home or retreat for the insane may receive and detain therein for purpose of care and treatment any person who is desirous of submitting himself for treatment and makes application therefor in writing, at the expense of such person, or the expense of his relatives or friends, or of the County in which such person resides upon the consent of the County Commissioners thereof, or of the City of Baltimore, if such person resides therein, upon the
