

troller, or in case said Comptroller shall be of the opinion that such application is not filed in good faith, or that such application is filed by some person as a subterfuge for the real person in interest whose license or registration shall theretofore have been cancelled for cause by said Comptroller, then and in any of said events the Comptroller after a hearing, of which the applicant shall have been given five (5) days' notice in writing and in which said applicant shall have the right to appear in person or by counsel and present testimony, shall have, and is hereby given the right and authority to refuse to issue to such a person a license certificate to transact business as a dealer in the State of Maryland.

The application in proper form having been accepted for filing and the bond having been accepted and approved, the Comptroller shall issue to such dealer a license certificate to transact business as a dealer in the State of Maryland subject to cancellation of such license as provided by law.

The license certificate so issued by the Comptroller shall not be assignable, and shall be valid only for the dealer in whose name issued, and shall be displayed conspicuously in the principal place of business of said dealer in the State of Maryland.

The Comptroller shall keep and file all applications and bonds with an alphabetical index thereof, together with a record of all licensed dealers.

It shall be unlawful for any user as defined herein to use, or any seller of diesel fuel as defined herein to sell diesel fuel or fuel oil within the State unless such user or seller is the holder of an uncancelled license issued by the Comptroller. Such license shall be issued in the same manner as is prescribed in this section, provided that the user or seller of diesel fuel shall have submitted with his application for said license a bond satisfactory to the Comptroller in an amount equal to three times the average monthly tax paid, but not to exceed $5,000.00.

251. The records of all purchases, receipts, sales, distribution and use of motor vehicle fuel of every dealer, user, and seller of diesel fuel shall at all times during the business hours of the day be subject to inspection by the Comptroller, or by any agent or employee thereof duly authorized by said Comptroller.

Every dealer shall maintain and keep, for a period of two (2) years, such record or records of motor fuel received, used, sold or delivered within this State by such dealer together with invoices, bills-of-lading, and other
