

(b) The Mayor and City Council is authorized in its discretion to purchase any property, real or personal, offered for sale to enforce the payment of State and County taxes due thereon, or any such property offered for sale by the Tax Collector of the City to enforce the payment of any City taxes, water rents, or any other City liens or assessments. The Mayor and City Council may sell, convey or lease any such property so purchased, in its discretion, after having duly advertised its intention so to sell, convey, or lease and after having accepted public bids for such sale, conveyance, or lease, and may give a valid lease or deed therefor to the lessee or purchaser of the same.

119. WATER RENTS. The Water Department shall certify to the Tax Collector all water rents when due and payable, and the Tax Collector shall proceed to collect the same as taxes, agreeably to the provisions of this sub-title.

120. STATEMENTS. The Mayor and City Council shall at intervals of not more than once a year publish in two newspapers of the City a full and complete statement of all taxes and other revenues collected during such previous period, indicating the sources from which such moneys were derived and also the expenditures and disposition thereof. Such statement shall include funds realized from the sale of bonds and notes, showing the source and disposition thereof.

POLICE DEPARTMENT

121. ESTABLISHMENT. The Mayor and City Council shall have full power and authority to establish and maintain a Police Department.

122. DUTIES. (a) The Chief of Police is the head police officer of the City and the head of the Police Department. He shall enforce generally within the police jurisdiction of the City all State laws applicable thereto and all ordinances and orders of the Mayor and City Council. He shall subdue riots, disorders, and disturbances of the peace, and shall take into custody all persons so offending against the public peace. He shall arrest all persons who shall obstruct or interfere with the execution of his duties.

(b) The Chief of Police shall attend upon any Court having the enforcement of any such offenses, and shall promptly and faithfully execute all writs and process issuing from said Court.

(c) He shall perform such other lawful duties as are imposed upon him by the Mayor and City Council and the City Manager.
