

(d) He shall give bond in an amount to be set by the Mayor and City Council.

123. PERSONNEL. The Police Department shall be composed of a Chief of Police, an Assistant Chief of Police, a Lieutenant of Police, and such number of subordinate officers and policemen as the Mayor and City Council may set by ordinance. In the temporary absence of the Chief, the subordinate officers shall assume his duties, in the order of their respective ranks.

124. QUALIFICATIONS. No person shall be employed in any capacity in the Police Department unless he is a citizen of the United States, a resident of the City for not less than three years, and of good moral character, nor unless he can read and write the English language and is not addicted to the use of alcoholic beverages.

125. CLASSIFIED SERVICE. All officers, members and employees of the Police Department, including the Chief of Police, Assistant Chief of Police, Lieutenants of Police, shall belong to the Classified Service of the City, to be chosen and to hold their positions accordingly, subject to the rights, privileges and duties thereof, as prescribed elsewhere in this Article.

126. SALARIES. (a) The salaries of the members of the Police Department of the City shall be as established by the Mayor and City Council, subject to the provisions of this section.

(b) Such salaries may not be established lower than those established herein, namely, Chief of Police, $298.00 per month; Assistant Chief of Police, $262.00 per month; Lieutenant of Police, $238.00 per month; Sergeant, $225.00 per month; Patrolman and Detective, $190.00 per month during the first year of service and $220.00 per month thereafter.

(c) Members may receive extra compensation for extra duty in case of an emergency.

(d) The Chief of Police shall estimate annually in advance the sum of money necessary for the salaries established as prescribed by this section, and he shall certify this sum to the Director of Finance. The Mayor and City Council shall be required to levy such amount, which shall thereupon be placed in a special fund for the members of the Police Department and shall not be used for any other purpose, except that at the end of the year any unused portion of such fund shall revert to the general funds of the City.