

(b) The City shall never be liable because of any damage or injury to person or property arising from or caused by conditions on any public street, alley or grounds, including accumulations of snow or ice, or conditions resulting from any public work of the City, unless the specific defect or condition shall have been actually known to the City Manager or City Engineer or to a supervisory employee of the department concerned for a period of at least twenty-four hours prior to the occurrence of the damage or injury, or unless the condition shall have been caused by an employee of the City, or unless said defect has constituted an extra-hazardous condition for a period in excess of 45 days. If the attention of the City Manager or City Engineer or supervisory employee of the department concerned was directed to any such defect or condition, in writing, at least twenty-four hours before the occurrence of the damage or injury, and proper diligence was not used to remedy the defect or condition, this shall constitute actual knowledge by the City Manager or City Engineer or supervisory employee of the department concerned as the case may be.

ENFORCEMENT

201. POWERS. The Mayor and City Council shall have power to enforce their ordinances by fines and penalties and by imprisonment.

202. JURISDICTION. Jurisdiction to try and determine all cases involving fines, penalties and imprisonment imposed by this Article or by ordinances adopted by the Mayor and City Council pursuant to this Article shall be in any trial magistrate having jurisdiction and sitting within the limits of the City.

203. FINES. All fines imposed by any such Court in any such case shall be recoverable in the name of the Mayor and City Council and shall be paid to the Mayor and City Council for the use of the City. These cases shall be considered as criminal cases in nature, and not as civil cases.

204. IMPRISONMENT. Persons sentenced to imprisonment in any such case, or to imprisonment in default of the payment of a fine or costs, may at the discretion of the Mayor and City Council be imprisoned in the City Jail or in the County Jail maintained by Allegany County, except that in the latter event the City shall reimburse the County for the expense of such imprisonment.

205. WORK. As an alternative, the Mayor and City Council may require persons in default of the payment of
