

spinal column, the procedure preparatory to and the adjustment by hand of such misaligned or displaced vertebrae of the spinal column and its articulations, by any method not including the use of drugs, surgery, obstetrics, or osteopathy, nor any branch of medicine; providing that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the use by any licensed Chiropractor of the selection of food materials necessary for the nourishment of the body and measures of cleanliness incident to the care of the human body.

448. (a) The State Board of Chiropractic Examiners may refuse to grant or may revoke a license to practice Chiropractic in this State, or may cause a licentiate's name to be removed from the records in the office of the Clerk of a Court of this State upon any of the following grounds, to wit: The attempt to do other than is permitted under this license in an effort to deceive the public, the employment of fraud or deception in applying for a license or in passing an examination provided for in this sub-title, the practice of Chiropractic under a false or assumed name, or the impersonation of another practitioner of like or different name, the conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude, habitual intemperance in the use of ardent spirits, narcotics or stimulants to such an extent as to incapacitate him or her for the performance of his or her professional duties, repeated convictions before the Board of a licensee using false and misleading advertising or advertising other than herein indicated, and practicing without having been issued an annual renewal certificate. Any person who is a licentiate, or is an applicant for a license to practice Chiropractic against whom any of the foregoing grounds for revoking or refusing a license is presented to said Board with a view of having the Board revoke or refuse to grant a license, shall be furnished with a copy of the complaint, and shall have a hearing before said Board in person or by attorney, or both, and witnesses may be examined by said Board respecting the guilt or innocence of said accused.

(b) Any person practicing chiropractic who shall solicit or advertise by mail, card, newspaper, pamphlet, radio or otherwise to the general public except as approved by the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners as herein authorized and upon conviction thereof before said Board of Chiropractic Examiners may have his license revoked; but notices by mail to bona fide patients of times for periodic examinations shall not be construed as soliciting or advertising. Repeat violations constitute grounds for revoking offender's license after due notice and formal hearing by the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners.
