

99. Every owner of such junk shops and second-hand stores shall provide and constantly keep a book, in which shall be fairly written down in the English language, at the time of every purchase by such owner of any such material, a description of all articles so purchased, the name and residence of the person from whom such purchase was made, and the day and hour of such purchase, and such books shall at all times be open to the inspection of any and every member of the police and detective forces of the City of Hagerstown. Such book or books must be preserved for a period of at least three years after the date the last purchase or transaction recorded in such book.

100. Any person who shall violate, or neglect, fail or refuse to comply with any and all of the provisions of the two preceding sections, shall for every offense, upon conviction before any court of competent jurisdiction, be fined not less than Five nor more than One Hundred Dollars, and in default of payment thereof be imprisoned in jail for a period not exceeding ninety days.

101. It shall not be lawful for the owners or lessees of any public hall, church, school or place of amusement, in the City of Hagerstown, to obstruct, or to allow to be obstructed by others, any of the aisles or passageways in the auditorium of said halls, churches, schools or places of amusement, by placing therein any benches, chairs, chairs or stools, or other articles that may prevent free ingress and egress during the hours that said places may be open to the public.

102. Said owners or lessees, or their agents, are required to keep open, at all hours during the time said halls, churches, schools or places of amusement, are open to the public, all doors giving means of ingress or egress, unless said doors open outward from said places, then the same may be closed, but no hindrance, such as lock or catches of any kind, shall be allowed to obstruct or prevent instant and easy egress through the same; and when said doors open inwards, it is required of said owners, lessees and their agents, that said doors shall be fastened securely and firmly open.

103. Owners or lessees, or any person holding under them or their agents, violating either of the two preceding sections, shall, on conviction thereof, be fined by the court before whom such conviction is had, for any violation, a
