

the Supervisor or Supervisors belonging to the political party entitled to be represented by such judge or clerk shall name three eligible persons from whom the other Supervisor or Supervisors shall select such judge or clerk.

6A. (a) In Baltimore City judges of election may be sworn in by any member of the Board of Supervisors of Elections, any registrar, or any assistant registrar.

(b) The Board shall have power to summon judges of election and to require their appearance before them; and to administer oaths and take testimony from such judges.

8. In the City of Baltimore, in the year 1946, and thereafter, the Board of Supervisors of Elections shall have power, in their discretion, to fix the compensation of judges of elections at not more than Twenty Dollars a day for each election day and at not more than Fifteen Dollars a day for each revision or supplementary registration day, which compensation shall be paid by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore. The Board of Supervisors of Elections of the various counties of the State, within the amounts authorized by the County Commissioners of each County, shall have power to fix the compensation of judges and clerks of election or registration, which compensation shall be paid by the respective County Commissioners of each County, and shall not be less than Seven Dollars per day, nor more than Twenty Dollars per day for each day actually served.

25A. On the second Monday in July in the year 1950, and in every second year thereafter, there shall be a supplemental registration in each precinct in the City of Baltimore, from two o'clock P. M. to ten o'clock P. M. on every such day. Such registration days shall be for the registration of persons who are not then registered voters of the city, and shall be conducted as in this Article specified for registrations in the City of Baltimore.

26. (a) In Baltimore City, at the time of registration, a card, with the name and address of the voter inserted, and certifying to the ward and precinct in which such voter is registered, shall be signed by one of the members of the Board of Registry and the voter, and such card shall be prima facie evidence that such voter has been properly registered. If any person is found to have registered more than once, the additional registration forms shall be cancelled by the Board. The Board shall have the authority to issue duplicate voters' identification cards, to be stamped "Duplicate" and not to require the signature of any member of the Board.
