

cured; and provided further, that nothing in this sub-title shall be construed as making lawful the possession, maintenance or use of the upright side lever operated slot machine commonly called the "one armed bandit", it being the intent to exclude said devices from the following licensing provisions. Any license issued hereunder shall not be regarded as property and confer no property rights, and may be suspended or revoked for cause at any time.

951B. Any qualified person or partnership may procure upon payment of the required fee the following classes of licenses from the County Commissioners of Prince George's County, as follows:

(a) (Class A Licenses—Amusement Devices which offer no Awards—$25.00 per annum, per Device.) One such license shall be required for each such amusement device which operates upon insertion of a coin and which does not offer or dispense any award to the player except free-plays that are not redeemable in either cash or merchandise.

(b) (Class B Licenses—Pinball and Claw Machine Amusement Devices which offer Awards—$50.00 per annum, per Machine.) One such license shall be required for each Pinball or Claw Machine which operates upon insertion of a coin and which offers or dispenses awards.

(c) (Class C Licenses—Console Type Amusement Devices—$175.00 per annum, per Device.) One such license shall be required for each console type amusement device which operates upon the insertion of a coin or coins and offers or dispenses awards.

(1) To own and operate on the device owner's premises only one Class A device, $25.00 per annum; one Class B device, $25.00 per annum; and/or two Class C devices, $50.00 each per annum.

(2) To own and operate more than one Class A device, one Class B device, and/or two Class C devices, but not to exceed more than one hundred (100) Class C devices, $1,000.00 per annum.

(e) Each such license, as provided in Sub-section D (2) of Section 951 (B), shall authorize the holder thereof to own, operate, distribute for operation, place on location, rent, lease or sell Class A, Class B and Class C Devices for public use in Prince George's County, providing the neces-
