

cester County", to be under a new sub-title "Fenwick", said sections to be known as Sections 78A to 78S and to follow immediately after Section 78 of said Article, incorporating the town of Fenwick and providing for the government thereof.

The purpose of this Bill is to incorporate the town of Fenwick, located in Worcester County. This is a small, rural community located south of the Maryland-Delaware State line, between the Atlantic Ocean and the Sinepuxent Bay. One provision of the charter authorizes the town officials to make their own assessment of property which is subject to taxation and another one authorizes them to regulate the speed of vehicles, both of which provisions are inconsistent with State law. Article 81 of the Code requires all incorporated towns to make levies for taxes on assessments made pursuant to that Article; and Article 66½ of the Code has made provision for the regulation of motor vehicle traffic, and in express terms it has repealed all local laws and provisions of municipal charters which are equivalent thereto or inconsistent therewith. I have, therefore, vetoed this Bill.
