

92. (Suspending Privileges of Non-Residents and Reporting Convictions.) (a). The privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the highways of this State given to a non-resident hereunder shall be subject to refusal, suspension or revocation by the Department in like manner and for like cause as an operator's or chauffeur's license issued hereunder may be refused, suspended or revoked.

94. (Mandatory Refusal, Revocation or Suspension of License By Department.) The Department shall forthwith refuse, revoke or suspend the license of any operator or chauffeur upon receiving a record of such operator's or chauffeur's conviction of any of the following offenses, when such conviction has become final:

(1) Manslaughter or negligent homicide resulting from the operation of a motor vehicle;

(2) Driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a narcotic drug;

(3) Any felony in the commission of which a motor vehicle is used;

(4) Failure to stop and render aid as required under the laws of this State in the event of a motor vehicle accident resulting in the death or bodily injury of another;

(5) Perjury in the making of a false affidavit or statement under oath to the Department under this Article or under any other law relating to the ownership or operation of motor vehicles;

(6) Turning off lights of motor vehicles to avoid identification.

(c) The Department is hereby authorized to refuse or suspend the license of an operator or chauffeur without preliminary hearing upon a showing by its records or other sufficient evidence that the applicant or licensee has committed an offense for which mandatory revocation of license is required upon conviction.

(d) The Department, after due hearing, may refuse, suspend or revoke the operator's license, chauffeur's license or special chauffeur's license or the registration of any vehicle granted under this Article for any violation of this Article by any such applicant, licensee or registrant, and for any other cause or reason which, in the opinion of the Department renders the holder of any such license or registration
