

(k) Such tags shall be supplied at a cost of five cents (5¢) each and shall be composed of two parts; one part giving the name and address of the consignee and the kind and number of furs or pelts contained in the package, shall be attached to the furs or pelts if carried personally open to view or be attached on the outside of the container in which the furs or pelts before-mentioned are shipped or transported; the other part of said tag containing the information specified on tag shall immediately be forwarded to the Director at Baltimore. The above tags may be secured from the Game Wardens in the several counties of the State.

(l) A licensed fur dealer in this State is not required to purchase and attach such special tags to shipments of furs or pelts of any wild quadruped to another State provided the number of the fur dealer's license for the current year appears on the outside of the packages being shipped or transported.

(m) It is unlawful for any common carrier or his agent knowingly to receive furs or pelts of any wild quadruped for shipment to any point outside of this State unless tagged or marked as hereinbefore required.

(n) It is unlawful for any person wilfully or wantonly to remove, mutilate or destroy any tag attached to the outside of a container in which furs or pelts are shipped.

(o) The possession of a green pelt or part thereof by any person during the closed season shall be prima facie evidence that such pelt or part thereof was unlawfully taken and possessed.

(p) (Penalty.) Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction before any Justice of the Peace or Court of competent jurisdiction of this State, shall be fined not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) nor more than Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for each and every offense and may be sentenced to thirty (30) days in jail, either or both at the discretion of the Court or Justice of the Peace, and in addition to said fine and imprisonment shall be fined Five Dollars ($5.00) for each fur or pelt or wild quadruped in possession in violation of the law. All such illegal furs, pelts or wild quadrupeds found in the possession of any person in this State shall be confiscated by the officer making the arrest and be delivered to the Director who may dispose of same as he may deem advisable for the best interest of the State.

64B. (Resident State Taxidermist and Fur Tanning License). (a) Any person desiring to engage in taxidermy
