

taxes, for whatsoever purpose levied or to be levied, for or within said town during the period of his service, or that may be placed in his hands for collection. He shall have power to collect and shall collect, if collectible, all water rents and town taxes levied and accumulating, as provided in Section 317A, and he shall have full power to enforce the payment of the same by cutting off the water or a sale of the property or by suit as aforesaid provided, as hereinbefore described to convey title to any real estate or personal property in said town and sold by him for the payment of town taxes due and in arrears and in default thereon, in the manner prescribed by the succeeding sections; and this Chapter shall not prevent said Town Manager from collecting back taxes levied and due before the passage of this law, but he may collect such back taxes as well as those levied and becoming due after the passage thereof.

317D. The said Town Manager of Princess Anne before he enters upon his duties as such shall take oath of office prescribed by the State Constitution before the President and Commissioners of Princess Anne, to the effect that he will faithfully and well perform the duties of the same, and he shall also execute the bond prescribed by Section 317A, which bond shall be approved by the said President and Commissioners of Princess Anne and filed away by the President of said President and Commissioners, or recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset County.

317E. Upon failure of any Town Manager of Princess Anne appointed to execute the bond required and provided for by the preceding sections on or before the third day after he has received his appointment to said office, the said President and Commissioners of Princess Anne shall after said third day of grace revoke said appointment and appoint some one else to fill said office who must qualify by giving bond as aforesaid.

317F. In case of the death, resignation or removal of the said Town Manager of Princess Anne, the said President and Commissioners of Princess Anne shall within thirty days or as soon thereafter as possible, after a vacancy in said office so caused, appoint a new Town Manager of Princess Anne who shall give bond and take the oath of office as heretofore prescribed for the original appointee.

317G. The President and Commissioners of Princess Anne shall make their annual levy for municipal taxes on
