

tions", be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read respectively as follows:

281. The said plan, agreement or regulation shall be entered in the book hereinafter required by Section 284 to be kept by every such corporation, and the same shall be acknowledged as provided by law by the trustees, or a majority of them. In all cases where through inadvertence or mistake such plan, agreement, or regulation has been heretofore acknowledged before one justice of the peace instead of two as at the time required by law, such acknowledgment shall be and is hereby made, to all intents and purposes, good and sufficient for the incorporation of the church, society or congregation named therein.

282. The plan, agreement or regulation, so acknowledged, together with a copy thereof, shall be delivered for record by the said trustees to the State Tax Commission in the manner and with the effect provided in Section 291A of this Article.

283. Every such plan, agreement or regulation, heretofore or hereafter determined upon in the manner provided for in Section 280 of this Article, may be amended from time to time and in the manner following:

(1) The trustees or a majority of them shall pass a resolution declaring that such amendment or amendments is or are advisable and calling a meeting of all persons above twenty-one years of age belonging to such church, society or congregation, to take action thereon.

(2) Ten days' written or printed notice stating the place, day or hour of such meeting and the business proposed to be transacted thereat shall be given to each such person by leaving the same with him or at his residence or usual place of business or by mailing it, postage prepaid and addressed to him at his address as it appears upon the records of said church, society or congregation.

(3) If a majority of all such persons attending such meeting vote in favor of such amendment or amendments, articles of amendment setting forth the same and stating that the same has or have been duly advised by the trustees and adopted by such persons, shall be signed and acknowledged in the name and on behalf of the church, society or congregation by such of the trustees as shall be designated in the resolution declaring such amendment or amendments advisable, and the matters and facts set forth in said articles of amendment shall be verified under oath
