

unless such pamphlet, circular, card, dodger, poster, advertisement or other form of publication herein described contains the name or names of the person or persons, association, committee or corporation responsible for the publication or distribution of the same, and if an association, committee or corporation is responsible for the publication or distribution of the same, there shall be attached the name of at least one responsible officer of such association, committee or corporation. Any person violating any provision of this paragraph, or aiding and abetting the violation thereof, shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. And this paragraph shall be enforced by warrant or indictment before the Circuit Court of the county in which the offense occurs, and the provisions of Section 1200 of this Article, and the provisions of Section 1308 of Article 17 (1943 Edition), shall not apply to the enforcement of this paragraph.

(I) Elections shall be conducted by the judges and clerks appointed by the Council, and shall be held at some convenient place or places to be designated by the Council; any vacancy in the list of judges or clerks occurring between their appointment and the election shall be filled by the Mayor. The polls shall be opened at 7:00 o'clock A. M. and closed at 7:00 o'clock P. M., and as soon thereafter as practicable the ballots shall be carefully counted, or the tabulators on the voting machines. The judges of the several polling places shall meet as a board of election the day following the election, and shall therefore determine what persons have been elected, issue certificates of election to such persons, and certify the result to the Council.

(J) In the event that the Mayor and Council shall ordain the use of paper ballots, all voting at municipal elections shall be upon official ballots printed on plain white paper, and of uniform size prepared and furnished by the Council to the judges of elections, and to no other person. On such ballots shall appear the name of each office to be filled at the said election, plainly printed in black ink, and thereunder shall appear the names alphabetically arranged of those candidates who have been nominated therefor in accordance with the provisions of this section. Immediately following the name of each office, and preceding the names of the candidates, shall be plainly printed in black ink a direction to the voter, "Vote for One" or "Vote for Two" (as the case may be), by making a cross (X) mark in that square which is opposite the name of the candidate to be voted for. A light black line shall be printed immediately under the name of each candi-
