

(2) Every inhabitant of the Town of Leonardtown who has reached the age of twenty-one years and who has resided in the said Town for a period of twelve months next preceding an election, and every taxpayer of record of the said Town shall be entitled to vote in elections to be held to fill the office of Commissioner of said Town, provided that he or she shall have registered his or her name on registration books to be provided by the Clerk to the Commissioners of said Town. Said registration may be made on any Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday between the hours of 10.00 A. M. and 4.00 P. M. at the office of said Clerk, until and including the day prior to the date set herein for election of Commissioners of said Town, at which time such registration books shall be closed. The Clerk is hereby authorized to and shall administer to all registrants an oath that the information given by said registrants is true and correct.

(3) Every male citizen who has attained his 25th year and who has resided in the Town of Leonardtown for a period of not less than twenty-four months prior to the date of the election for Commissioner, and who is a real estate taxpayer of record of the said Town, shall be eligible to fill the office of Commissioner of said Town, provided that he shall file his name in person as a candidate for such office with the Clerk to the Commissioners of said Town, at least one month prior to the date of the election. Provided further, that the said Clerk shall cause to be published in any two newspapers of general publication in said Town for two successive weeks before the date set for said election, a list of such candidates so filing.

(4) The Clerk to the Commissioners of the Town of Leonardtown shall cause this Act to be published in any two newspapers of general publication in said Town for two successive weeks beginning on the first Friday in April of each successive year, or on the nearest publishing date thereto, so that the last publication will occur not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date set for election.

(5) The Commissioners of the Town of Leonardtown shall provide official printed ballots which shall be used exclusively for voting at elections to fill the office of Commissioner of said Town. Said ballots shall contain the names of all candidates who have properly filed their names with the Clerk to the Commissioners of said Town and who have been duly certified by said Clerk. Said ballots shall contain blank spaces to provide for write-in candidates who are eligible under the provisions of this Act to hold the office of Commissioner of said Town. The number of blank spaces herein provided for shall
