

“Cambridge”, as said section was enacted by Chapter 256 of the Acts of 1935, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

57A. The Mayor of Cambridge shall be nominated in the manner set forth in Section 49 of this Article and shall be elected by the voters of the entire town for a term of four years and the first election for Mayor shall be held at the same time as the Commissioners for the first, fourth and fifth wards are elected. The Mayor shall receive an annual salary of Eight Hundred Dollars ($800.00) as compensation in full for all services rendered and shall not be paid any additional fees or compensation for attending meetings of the Commissioners. In addition to the powers hereinafter vested in him, said Mayor shall have the power to veto any ordinance, passed by the Commissioners of said city. Every ordinance passed by said Commissioners, before it becomes valid, shall be presented to said Mayor; if he approve it, he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it with his objection to said Commissioners; if, after reconsideration thereof, four-fifths of said Commissioners vote affirmatively for said ordinance, it shall become valid. If any ordinance shall not be so returned by the Mayor within six days after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall become valid.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1949.

Approved March 8, 1949.
