

tions 72-90W, inclusive, of Article 81 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1947 Supplement), and as amended by the General Assembly.

In addition thereto and notwithstanding the provisions to the contrary in Sections 72-90W, inclusive, of Article 81 aforesaid, in the year 1949, the Town Clerk and Treasurer of Cheverly may certify to the Collector of Taxes for Prince George's County, Maryland, for inclusion in the next sale to be held by the said collector, all taxes and/or special assessments which are in arrears at the time this Charter takes effect and that have not heretofore been certified to said Collector.

Until a final decree is passed under the provisions of Sections 72-90W, inclusive, of Article 81, aforesaid, foreclosing all rights of redemption in any property certified by the Town Clerk and Treasurer of Cheverly to the Collector of Prince George's County, Maryland, and sold by the Collector, and until a deed to said property is executed and delivered to the holder of the certificate of sale, such property shall continue to be assessed by the Mayor and Town Council of Cheverly as though no sale had been made, whether the County Commissioners or some other person holds the certificate of sale. All taxes accruing subsequent to the date the Town Clerk and Treasurer of Cheverly certified to the Collector of taxes for Prince George's County, Maryland, all taxes then due it, together with interest and penalties thereon, shall be additional liens against the property. The Town Clerk and Treasurer of Cheverly shall upon receipt of a notice from the Collector of Prince George's County, Maryland, that he intends to hold a tax sale of property upon which taxes are in arrears in addition to certifying all taxes then due it on property not heretofore certified to said Collector, shall in a separate statement report all subsequent accrued taxes assessed on property heretofore certified to the Collector for which payment has not been received. The said statement shall contain a reference to the date the property was initially certified to the Collector of Prince George's County, Maryland, the date the subsequent taxes became in arrears, the name of the person who last appears as the owner of said property on the tax rolls of the Town of Cheverly. The amounts so certified to the Collector for Prince George's County, Maryland, shall be collected before a deed is delivered by the Collector, as hereinbefore provided.

216. If, within thirty days from the date of passage of any town ordinance, a petition protesting against said ordinance, signed by not less than one-half as many qualified voters as voted at the last general election, shall be filed with the Mayor
