

term. All elections shall be held upon notice of the time and place of such meeting having been mailed at least two weeks in advance of said meeting to all resident registered qualified voters being owners of any interest, joint or several, in real property in said community. Only resident registered qualified voters being owners of any interest, joint or several, in real property in said community shall be eligible to be elected as Committeemen. Only resident registered qualified voters being owners of any interest, joint or several, in real property in said community shall be entitled to vote.

(c) Following each election each newly elected Committeeman shall qualify within fifteen days by taking oath, before any person in Montgomery County authorized by law to administer oaths, to discharge diligently and faithfully all duties of the office.

(d) If any newly elected Committeeman fails to so qualify, or if any Committeeman shall remove his residence from Chevy-Chase—Section 4, or if a vacancy should occur by resignation, or for any other reason, his office shall be deemed to have become vacant. Vacancies in the Committee which occur before the annual election hereinbefore provided for may be filled by appointment, by a majority of the remaining members of the Committee, of a resident registered and qualified voter being an owner of any interest, joint or several, in real property in said community, to serve, upon qualification as required of a newly elected Committeeman, until the next regular election.

100. (a) The County Council is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to levy and cause to be collected from the owners of real property in Chevy-Chase—Section 4 at the time of the county levy beginning July 1, 1950 and for each tax year thereafter, a tax on the assessed valuation of the real property within said described area in Chevy Chase—Section 4 as named or created in this sub-title in amounts certified to the County Council by the Committee: Provided, however, that the Committee shall not certify nor the County Council levy or collect a tax for any year of less than twenty cents ($0.20) or in excess of fifty cents ($0.50) on each One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) of assessed valuation of such real property.

(b) On the first Tuesday in February of the year 1950 and each succeeding year thereafter and prior to certifying the tax rate to the County Council, the Committee shall hold a public meeting on its proposed budget for the forthcoming fiscal year. Notice of the time and place of such meeting
