

ports or landing fields or other facilities for the use of any type of aircraft within the limits of such counties, and may use for such purpose or purposes any property suitable therefor that is now or may at any time hereafter be owned or controlled by such county.

(c) Any property, including air rights or interests acquired, owned, controlled, or occupied by such cities, villages, towns, or counties for the purposes enumerated in Section 13 (a) and (b) hereof shall and are hereby declared to be acquired, owned, controlled, and occupied for a public purpose and as a matter of public necessity, and such cities, villages, towns, or counties shall have the right to acquire property of every kind, including air rights or interests, for such purpose or purposes under the power of eminent domain as and for a public necessity.

(d) Private property of every kind, including air rights or interests, needed by a city, village, town, or county for an airport or landing field or other facilities for the use of any type of aircraft shall be acquired by purchase if the city, village, town, or county is able to agree with the owners on the terms thereof, and otherwise by condemnation, in the manner provided by law under which the city, village, town, or county is authorized to acquire real property for public purposes, other than street purposes, or, if there be no such law, in the manner provided for and subject to the provisions of the condemnation law.

(e) Every city, village, or town, and the Board of County Commissioners of any county which acquires, leases, controls or sets apart property of any kind for an airport, landing field or other facilities for the use of any type of aircraft or purposes so to do, may establish, construct, reconstruct, erect, alter, expand, enlarge, improve, equip, maintain, protect, police, repair and operate the same, and may lease the same, in whole or in part, or grant any right or interest therein or thereon, to any person or corporation on such terms and conditions as it may deem proper, or may vest jurisdiction or authority to exercise or perform any or all of the foregoing powers in any suitable officer, board, body, commission, or other agency of such city, village, town, or county, and any such city, village, town, or county is hereby authorized to create any such agency for such purposes. The expenses and costs incurred in connection with doing or performing any or all of the above mentioned acts or things shall be a city, village, town, or county charge, as the case may be. Every city, village or town, and the County Commissioners of any county may establish fees or charges for the use of such airports, land-
