

ing fields or other facilities for the use of any type of aircraft, or for any right or interest granted therein or thereon, or may authorize an officer, board, body, commission or other agency of such village, city, town, or county having jurisdiction to establish such fees or charges.

(f) The local authorities of a city, village, town or county to which this sub-title is applicable having power to appropriate money therein may annually appropriate and cause to be raised by taxation in such city, village, town, or county, a sum sufficient to carry out the provisions of this sub-title.

(g) (Bonds.) Any municipality as hereinbefore defined by this Article, and having general taxing powers within its jurisdiction shall be and is hereby authorized to issue bonds in such amounts and at such rate of interest and with such serial maturity as the governing body thereof may, by suitable resolution, order or ordinance, determine and use the proceeds from the sale of said bonds for the purpose of acquisition of sites and the construction, enlargement, alterations, or improvements of airports or buildings or permanent improvements thereon and access roads thereto. Any bonds so issued under the authorization of this Article shall be secured by the full faith and credit of the municipality issuing the said bonds as to the principal and interest thereof. In the issuance of any such bonds the municipality issuing the same shall make suitable provision for levying annually a general tax upon all the assessable property subject to tax within the jurisdiction of the municipality issuing the same for the payment of the principal of said bonds and the interest thereon as the same may become due and payable. All Acts or parts of Acts, whether general or local, conflicting in any way with the provisions of this Article, including Article 31 of the Annotated Code of Maryland or any amendments thereto shall be and the same are hereby repealed, so far as the issuance of bonds for the construction of airports is concerned, provided that no municipality shall issue bonds hereunder in an amount which together with the aggregate amount of all other actual bonded indebtedness of said municipality shall exceed 10% of the total assessed valuation of the properties located within said municipality.

(h) The powers conferred upon cities, villages, towns and County Commissioners by Section 13 (a) to (g), inclusive, shall include acquisition of property, including air rights or interests, for an airport, landing field or other facilities for the use of any type of aircraft to be maintained by any common carrier or carriers of passengers or freight by air; and when any such city, village, town or Board of County Commissioners has contracted with any such common carrier to
